Message from the Dean

William Howard Taft University has served students for over three decades.

Welcome to the W. Edwards Deming School of Business at William Howard Taft University. William Deming's (1900-1993) significant contributions to the theory of quality improvement include the Fourteen Points for Quality Improvement and the System of Profound Knowledge. Deming's Theory of Profound Knowledge consists of four parts: appreciation for a system, knowledge about variation, theory of knowledge, and knowledge of psychology. He believed in what Gestalt Theorists stated as: the whole is different and/or greater than its parts.

He knew that to improve/change/or fix a system, you have to understand it first. Deming helped create a system that proved to be holistic and dynamic, and is still used around the world in industry, government, and academia.

Dr. Deming was also known for his many quotes, and the following is one favorite: "It is not enough to do your best; you must know what to do, and then do your best." This quote that can be easily applied to your business studies here at William Howard Taft University. We will help you in acquiring the knowledge needed to do your best, and become the best in your future endeavors.

Master of Science in Taxation (MST) Program

OVERVIEW OF THE PROGRAM

The Master of Science in Taxation (MST) program is a directed independent study program specifically designed for certified public accountants and other tax professionals.

The program presents current and focused information necessary to perform tax planning activities. Using many of the same reference materials found in the offices of tax professionals, the program provides the conceptual understanding and technical competence advantageous for advancement in the tax consulting profession, corporate finance departments, and government tax agencies.

Consistent with the AICPA Statement on Standards for Continuing Professional Education Programs, the University recommends 15 credits (hours) be awarded for each semester unit completed. CPE credits are earned at the time a course is completed.

With respect to continuing education for Enrolled Agents, courses within the program also meet the standards of Treasury Department Circular 230.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Master of Science in Taxation (MST) program are:

1. To develop the skills necessary to perform tax research, tax planning activities, and advance in tax-related career areas.
2. To offer coursework and practical exercises that will impact the effectiveness of its students in performing tax-related activities.
3. To offer a number of electives focused on various specialized taxation issues and procedures.

Successful graduates of the program will demonstrate:

- Research skills necessary to evaluate and apply current areas of tax law and tax-related legal issues relating to business, corporate structure, and individual tax procedures and strategies.
- A solid foundation of understanding of the laws pertaining to tax procedure and how the IRS interprets/applies those laws.

- Techniques for analyzing and resolving taxation issues, including identifying problems, researching and locating relevant law, and applying the legal rules to facts to arrive at conclusions.
- The ability to effectively communicate tax research to clients and the community of tax professionals and make appropriate recommendations based on sound reasoning and analysis.

The University acts to fulfill the purposes of the program through appropriate coursework, coupled with continuing direction, evaluation of student progress, and regular assessment of student learning outcomes, supervised and administered by qualified faculty.

PRESENTATION

The Program is presented on a semester basis. Students are generally enrolled in 3 courses per semester with the exception of the capstone, which is taken separately at the end of the program. Each semester consists of a minimum time period of 16 weeks from the date study commences. Students not completing all semester coursework in the 16-week period will be granted an automatic two-month extension of time to complete the semester. Students may take a break between semesters; however, except in special circumstances, the entire program must be completed within five years.

Coursework is submitted and graded via Taft University's online learning platform, Moodle[™]. This gives students and faculty one central place to log on and interact through discussion forums, submit and retrieve feedback on lesson assignments, and access any ancillary electronically available course materials.

The Program is available to enrolled students from anywhere there is an internet connection.

Each course in the Program contains a series of lesson assignments, generally consisting of reading assignments supplemented occasionally by various multimedia. Students are evaluated through examinations and/or research assignments, which are submitted for faculty evaluation.

Master of Science in Taxation (MST) Program

DIRECTED INDEPENDENT STUDY

The advantages to independent study are obvious – flexibility in the study schedule, the ability to complete coursework from almost anywhere in the world, and the ability to interact with instructors and students with common interests from all regions of the United States and many foreign countries. However, independent study education is not the best alternative for all students.

While there are exceptions and every individual is different, experience has shown certain personal attributes are often helpful or detrimental in the successful completion of distance learning courses. Students who have been successful in independent study programs often have many of the following attributes:

- Are good at prioritizing tasks and often get things done ahead of time without being reminded and, as a result, are excellent time managers;
- Are highly motivated;
- Recognize independent study is an alternative means to achieve educational goals – not an “easy way” to achieve such goals;
- Have a strong desire to complete their educational goals.

Because students won't be sitting in a classroom on a regular basis and won't have an instructor or classmates nearby to remind them of assignments, a student must be self-directed and conscientious about completing assignments to succeed in the program. As with all things in life, the greater the motivation to do something, the greater the chance of success.

Individuals who possess the following attributes may not be a good candidate for an independent study program:

- Students who strongly prefer face-to-face interaction with instructors and classmates;
- Students who find classroom discussion is almost always helpful;
- Students who need feedback from their instructor immediately and often;
- Students with poor self-discipline and planning skills.

The first three points are not possible in our directed independent study modality. The flexibility that makes this type of program attractive to many students requires greater self-discipline and planning than in a traditional classroom program where the timing of the course is predetermined. While the University will assist the student in preparing a study plan, a student must exercise self-discipline in the completion of the degree requirements.

Commitment and self-discipline are the keys to success.

No applicant will be admitted to the program unless the University believes they have the academic ability to succeed. However, the degree of commitment and self-discipline cannot always be accurately assessed at the time of admission.

ADMISSION POLICIES AND REQUIREMENTS

Applicants who have earned a Bachelor's degree from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education are considered regular applicants to the Program. The majority of applicants to this program are adults working in a variety of professional settings.

An individual not qualifying as a regular applicant may apply as a special applicant. Special applicants are evaluated on a case-by-case basis but must have an academic background equivalent to a Bachelor's degree earned in the United States. Certified Enrolled Agents who also have 30 credits of general education may qualify for the program without a Bachelor's degree.

Applicants whose native language is not English and who have not earned a degree from an appropriately accredited institution where English is the principal language of instruction must receive a minimum score of 530 on the paper-based Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or 71 on the TOEFL internet-based test (iBT®) or its equivalent. For more information on TOEFL visit their website.

An applicant may be conditionally admitted into the program based on a completed Application for Admission form, and student copies of transcripts reflecting the applicant's highest relevant degree. Official copies of all relevant college level credits received directly from the institution of origin will be required within 60 days of enrollment.

The vast majority of the program's applicants are mature adults working in a variety of professional settings. Many have not attended college for several years. Consequently, prior class rank and grade point average are not significant factors in the admission process.

Students may apply to have prior coursework and/or college-level learning reviewed by the University for academic credit.

Catalog Addendum for California Residents

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.

It is important that you keep copies of your enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, 2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95833, (916) 431-6959 or (888) 370-7589.

To be eligible for STRF, you must be a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The institution, a location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.
2. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120-day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution or were enrolled in an educational program within the 120-day period before the program was discontinued.
3. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120 days before closure.
4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution in excess of tuition and other costs.
6. You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.
7. You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF.

A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of non-collection may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.
